In loving memory of our Father and Grandfather, Maury Gibbs Martin, on his 86th birthday, January 4th.
A precious soul did heaven gain,
Where eternal suns are shining.
And skies are ever blue.
Take him in your arms dear God,
And treasure him with your Loving, tender care.
Many lonely hearts ache,
Often a silent tear
Leaves a beautiful memory
Of the one we loved so dear.

Spirit of love

wards, to the people in and around the community of Pamplin who have shown us what living in a small community is all about. May God bless all of you, concluded the Brochard family.

Guy is on a 30 day "leave of absence" employed by the Buckingham Correctional Facility and the Southside Community Hospital in Farmville. Terry trains horses three days a week in Lynchburg.

Both Guy and Terry enjoy raising horses and ponies and as a result of their interest, started a Horse and Pony Program for the Appomattox County 4-H Clubs.

The Brochards are members of Our Lady Of Peace Catholic Church in Appomattox.

Love, received by the closest friends, is underway to collect funds for the Brochard family. Anyone wishing to make a contribution may do so by contacting Richard Carter, Ronald Temple, Frank Sweet or Mr. and Mrs. David Bailey of Pamplin.

"I sincerely believe this is a worthy cause," commented Jimmy Carter. "And I think the people of this county would like to show those people that Appomattox County is a caring, concerned county."

APPOMATTOX MAYOR RONALD C. SPIGGLE and Wilson's Supermarket manager Carl Stinnett display the check totaling $100 stuck in the Charmin "Win a Wrapple" national sweepstakes. Spiggle said he is "delighted to receive the prize check, and I am now a firm believer in sweepstakes." (Photo by Allen Austin)

Spout Spring Ruritans busy with major project

The Spout Spring Ruritan Club, with 23 active members, will have a busy year during 1984 with a $150,000 construction project that had its beginning in 1983.

"We got the softball field graded in summer of '83, and in December of last year work began on the club building," said Joe Fuller, past president of the club.

The 60 foot by 80 foot steel building will seat approximately 250 people comfortably. It will be available to the community for civic affairs, according to Fuller.

"We will light the softball field; an area has been designated for shooting matches, and we have plans for a picnic pavilion which will be available for community use," said Fuller.

The building is located just off 460 east, just below the Paradise Lake entrance.

The club was chartered in May of 1966 with 32 charter members. They included: Frederick Dickerson, James M. Tweedy, Bill Reynolds, J. C. Carter, Phillip Scruggs, Norman H. Jones, Joe N. Mayberry, Mickey C. Martin, E.W. Jones, Norman Ferguson, Kenneth Jamerson, Sr., Curtis Wooten, Alex R. Garrett, Robert G. Netherland, Jr., William E. Layne, Jr., Jesse Ebbs, Robert E. Abernathy, Jr., Floyd C. Coleman, Claude Dickerson, James Cheatham, A. C. Reynolds, Albert Maxey, David W. Smith, Harry W. Reynolds, James A. Martin, Jr., Wallace Megginson, R. M. Harris, Jr., Edwin Carter, David E. Totty, William P. Carter, Sam D. Davidson, Samuel Scottwood, and according to Fuller, seven of the original charter members are still active in the club.

Fuller, who has been a member of the club for the past seven years is proud of the fact that "we have 100 percent active participation in our projects."

"Our club went through a period of decline for a time," said Fuller. "But now we are in a growth period. We have grown 18 percent in '83 and we look forward to continued growth in the new year."

The club has long range plans to add additional recreational facilities as money becomes available.

"Of the contruction work that is being done, we have used local businesses in order to keep the money in our community," said Fuller.

"We want to make it a nice community project that the people in town and county will feel free to use," added Fuller.

The club donated a sizable amount to charitable causes in 1983. In addition to monies donated to various charities, the club has been active in other projects.

"For example," commented Fuller, "we picked up trash along the roads when the state force had not had the time."

The club also worked in cooperation with the Commission on Aging during 1983, installing locks where needed in the homes of senior citizens. The commission supplied the locks and the Spout Spring Ruritan Club supplied the labor.

Officers for 1984 for the club are: President, Peyton Cumby; Vice President, Donnie Ferguson; Secretary, William Layne; and Treasurer, Claude Dickerson.

Martin attends fundraiser

George Martin of Appomattox, formerly of New York City, attended the Virginia Seminary and College's Annual Homecoming and Fund Raising Event held recently in Lynchburg. Meeting in Humbles Hall Auditorium on campus, the event brought in $92,241 of the goal of $100,000.

Martin, a 1931 graduate of the school and for 25 years president of the New York Alumni Association of the school said, "A lot of Appomattox County blacks attended this school that was founded in 1888."

"The light that was lit on the hill in 1888 will not go out," said guest speaker The Rev. Robert Perry of Bridgeport, Conn. It is expected the school will reach the goal because donations expected by mail have not been opened.

Mr. George Martin

More than $13,000 raised

Moses notes success of PHBP funding effort

Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you fine people of Appomattox, Buckingham, Prince Edward, Cumberland, Charlotte, Campbell, Amherst, Nelson and Halifax Counties, ther Towns of Farmville, Appomattox, Brookneal, Amherst, Altavista and the cities of Lynchburg and Danville for the recent project of Patrick Henry Boys Plantation in the fund-raising project to help toward the renovation of Sunnyview by donating to the contest giving a 1984 Chevette. We appreciate the fine price given on the car by Andy Shelton of Moses Motor Co.

This was a grand Christmas present to the twelve boys and house parents who will be occupying Sunnyview in the very near future.

The project had a gross sales of $19,195. and a net profit of $13,650.80 which is being used for the renovation of Sunnyview.

Captain (Retired) Quinton E. Wilhelmi, Prince Edward County was the lucky winner.

All of us from Patrick Henry Boys Plantation wish him and his family many happy miles of transportation with his new Christmas present.

Sincerely,
C.T. Moses, Jr.

Hollywood news

By MARY BAGBY

Happy New Year 1984

A year that is only just begun
Before its day and months are done,
May God's great love be understood
And Earth be one great Brotherhood.

Let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. (Gal. 6:9)

Our sincere sympathy and prayers are with the family and loved ones of Mr. Vernell Mitchell who passed away last week.

We were very sorry to hear Mrs. Frank (Marge) Schampel fell Thursday on the ice and broke her knee. She is a patient in the Lynchburg General Hospital. Our prayers are with her and her family.

We were indeed sorry to hear of the loss by fire of Memorial United Methodist Church in Lynchburg Friday.

Central and Hollywood Baptist Churches have constuted a field of churches for a number of years. Recently Central Church has decided to go full time and is selling her half of the parsonage and has accepted Hollywood's offer to buy. Any member, former member or interested friends wishing to give as a memorial to some love one or just as a gift will be gratefully accepted. Make check to Hollywood Baptist Church for Hollywood parsonage fund or Hollywood Church Building Fund.

Mrs. Bob Kenzie died recently in Bethesda, Md. Our sincere sympathy is with her loved ones and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Bremmen visited Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Webb and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Sheets last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Webb visited Mrs. L. L. Webb and Miss Joyce Webb Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Willie Craft and family were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Webb Tuesday night. Keith Webb visited in this home last week.

Mrs. Katherine Wingfield and daughter, Julia, visited Mrs. Edna Covington at Spout Spring and Mrs. L. L. Webb and Joyce Saturday.

Mrs. Madeline Inge was a dinner guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Covington. Mr. Nat Ferguson was a luncheon guests Sunday, of Mrs. Inge.

Thomas Woodall and Andy Davis were supper guests Wednesday evening of Mrs. Mary Bagby. Others calling in this home were Katherine and Julia Wingfield, Jim and Virgie Woodall, Ruby and Lisa Woodall, Raymond and Shirley Franklin.
